The Law Regulating Newspapers and Periodicals

1 Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid, the subscribers are responsible for all the numbers sent

3 If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their bills, and ordered their papers discontinued

4 The Courts have decided that a refusal to take a newspaper or periodical from the Post Office with out to Hyla, the publisher and the payment of all arrearages is prima facie evidence of fraud

Subscribers to newspapers or periodicals removing are liable to pay so long as the paper or periodical may be sent to the residence of the party at the time of subscription unless notice is sent of such removal to the publication office

PORTABLE WRITING CASE designed for Army use The most convenient article ever offered for sale by D BUGBEE & CO

IRON-CLAD STEAMERS.
NAVY DEPARTMENT }
Washington, February 20 1862 }
THE Navy Department will until the 4th of April next receive propositions for the complete construction and equipment of iron clad vessels for river harbor and coast defence
These vessels with the exception of those for the Mississippi river and its tributaries will be propeller screws those for the Mississippi river and tributaries may be propelled by paddle wheels—the hulls will be either wholly of iron (which would be preferred) or iron and wood combined, as the project may consider most suitable for the object proposed but their sides and decks must be protected with an iron armament sufficient to resist the heaviest shot and shells
The vessels for the Mississippi river and its tributaries are not to draw more than six feet water when fully equipped and armed at which draft they are to be able to maintain a permanent speed of nine miles per hour in still water, and carry sufficient coal in the bunkers for six days steaming at that speed Their armament will consist of not less than six eleven inch guns
The vessels for harbor defence are not to draw more than twelve feet water when fully equipped and armed at which draft they are to be able to maintain a permanent speed of ten knots per hour in smooth water and carry sufficient coal in the bunker for seven days steaming at that speed The armament will consist of not less than four to four eleven inch guns
The vessels for coast defence are not to draw more than twenty feet water when fully equipped and armed at which draft they are to be able to maintain a permanent speed of fifteen knots per hour at sea and carry sufficient coal in the bunkers for ten days steaming at this speed Their armament will consist of one or two fifteen or twenty inch guns
The guns of the vessels for harbor and coast defence are to train to all points of the compass without change in the vessel's position
The propositions must state the number of vessels, subject to the election of the Department, which the party proposes to furnish complete in every respect embracing armour plating steam machinery and equipments of all kinds ready for service, excepting only the ordnance and ordnance stores and provisions the proposition must be accompanied by descriptions specifications drawings and models of such character that the work could be executed from them
The place of delivery must be stated the time within which the vessel or vessels are to be completed and also the total sum to be paid for each.
It will be stipulated in the contract that one-fifth the total amount will be retained by the Government until sixty days after the reception of the vessel in order to give it a trial the remaining payments being made with due regard to the proper performance and progress of the work, the contract will also embrace forfeitures for failure to perform the contract specified
The bids must be accompanied by the guarantee required by law, that if a contract is awarded it will be promptly executed, and the names of the parties who are to become the sureties for the amount of the face of the contract will also be stated
The Department will consider any other propositions that may be presented in which the draft of water above named is not exceeded
The Department will be at liberty to accept or reject any or all the propositions tendered

The London Quarterly, (Conservative)

The Edinburgh Review, (Whig)

The North British Review, (Free Church)

The Westminster Review, (Liberal)

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory)

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year They will occupy a middle ground between the partisly written newspaper items crude speculations and flying rumors of the daily Journal and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political interests of the time shall have passed away It is to these articles that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events and as such, in addition to their well established literary, scientific and theological character we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

Laws of the United States,
Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No 94]

AN ACT to prohibit the "coolie trade" by American citizens in American vessels

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled

That no citizen or citizens of the United States or foreigner coming into or residing within the same shall by himself or any other person whatsoever either as master owner factor or otherwise build equip load or otherwise prepare any ship or vessel or any steamship or steam vessel registered enrolled or licensed in the United States or any port within the same, for the purpose of transporting from China or from any port or place therein, or from any other port or place the inhabitants or subjects of China, known as "coolies," to be transported to any foreign country port or place whatever to be disposed of or sold or transferred for any term of years or for any time whatever as servants or apprentices, or to be held to service or labor And if any ship or vessel steamship or steam vessel, belonging in whole or in part to citizens of the United States, and registered enrolled, or otherwise licensed as aforesaid, shall be employed for the said purposes, or in the "coolie trade," so called, or shall be used to procure or carry from China or elsewhere, as aforesaid any subjects of the Government of China for the purpose of transporting or disposing of them as aforesaid, every such ship or vessel, steamship or steam vessel her tackle, apparel furniture and other appurtenances, shall be forfeited to the United States and shall be liable to be seized prosecuted and condemned in any of the circuit or district courts of the United States for the district where the said ship or vessel steamship or steam vessel may be found seized or carried

SEC 2 And be it further enacted That if any citizen of the United States shall contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act take or cause to be taken any vessel or vessels to transport any such persons as are above described in this act for the purpose of disposing of them as aforesaid, he or he shall be liable to be indicted therefor and on conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year

SEC 3 And be it further enacted That if any citizen of the United States shall contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act take on board any vessel or vessels to transport any such persons as are above described in this act for the purpose of disposing of them as aforesaid, he or she shall be liable to be indicted therefor and on conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year

SEC 4 And be it further enacted That nothing in this act herein before contained shall be construed to apply to or affect any free and voluntary emigration of any Chinese subject or to any vessel carrying such persons as passenger on board the same, Provided, however, That a permit or certificate shall be prepared and signed by the consular or consular agent of the United States residing at the port from which such vessel may take her departure containing the name of such person and setting forth the fact of his voluntary emigration from such port or place which certificate shall be given to the master of such vessel but the same shall not be given until such consul or consular agent shall be first personally satisfied by evidence produced of the truth of the facts the same contain

SEC 5 And be it further enacted That all the provisions of the act of Congress approved February twenty second eighteen hundred and forty seven, entitled "An act to regulate the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels, and all the provisions of the act of Congress approved March three eighteen hundred and forty nine entitled "An act to extend the provisions of all laws now in force relating to the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels and the regulation thereof, shall be extended and shall apply to all vessels owned in whole or in part by citizens of the United States and registered enrolled or licensed within the United States for the carriage of passengers or intending to carry passengers from any foreign port or place without the United States to any other foreign port or place without the United States and that all penalties and forfeitures provided for in said act shall apply to vessels and masters last aforesaid

SEC 6 And be it further enacted That the President of the United States shall be and he is hereby authorized and empowered in such way and at such time as he shall judge proper to the end that the provisions of this act may be enforced according to the true intent and meaning thereof to detect and arrest the vessels of the United States and the masters and commanders thereof, to examine all vessels suspected and owned in whole or in part by citizens of the United States, and registered enrolled or licensed under the laws of the United States when ever they may be, whenever in the judgment of the master or commanding officer thereof reasonable cause shall exist to believe that such vessel has on board in violation of the provisions of this act any subjects of China known as coolies, for the purpose of transportation and upon sufficient proof that such vessel is employed in violation of the provisions of this act to cause such vessel to be carried with her officers and crew into any port or district within the United States, and delivered to the marshal of such district to be held and disposed of according to the provisions of this act

SEC 7 And be it further enacted That this act shall take effect from and after six months from the day of its passage

THE NEWYORK TRIBUNE.
LARGE PREMIUMS
TO OUR FRIENDS
Hitherto we have never offered any one a premium for helping to extend the circulation of THE TRIBUNE We have printed the cheapest newspaper considering the outlay by which it is produced that was ever issued in any country Hitherto it for little more than the cost of the white paper We employed no agents to canvass for subscribers and have allowed no compensation to any and a copy of our paper to any of the thousands of generous friends who have annually taken a share in the number of copies of our seven all issues circulated in their respective neighborhoods should be at least maintained and if possible increased We are been sparing in our year all thanks to those friends but have none the less realized the fullness of our obligation for their earnest unselfish patriotic persistent efforts
We propose for the present season only—in view of the hardness of the times and the fact that we are enabled to buy wholesale more cheaper than we have hitherto done or can hope to do after the close of the War—to make some small acknowledgment—but so much a recompense as all let recommend—to those friends who shall get up the exertions themselves Claim subscriptions (either original or renewals) to our Weekly and Semi Weekly editions We do not know what we could offer any thing of similar value more generally acceptable and useful than a Gold Pen of the best quality and finish We propose therefore to forward to each person who during the two months ending shall send us subscriptions and payments for THE TRIBUNE, as follows

Our flag, the sign of the free,
Bright emblem of Columb a's glory!
Shall tell to coming years the story,
How, stout of heart, and strong of hand,
The patriots of our native land
Bore it, the nation's hope and life,
On tented field, 'mid fearful strife,
Still on! 'till through the sulphurous cloud
It broke in triumph Treason's shroud!

School Education.

MR EDITOR The following valuable article from the Scientific American contains too much truth to be kept from general reading Its republication in your paper will I am sure, do much good in a community which has the subject so much at heart as this P

HOURS OF STUDY A very remarkable pamphlet has recently made its appearance in England, containing statements of facts that ought to command the attention of the civilized world. The pamphlet is written by E Chadwick Esq, C B, and published pursuant to an address of the House of Lords The subject of this pamphlet is education and is devoted to the discussion of three matters—the organization of schools the hours of study, and physical training Our attention has been arrested by Mr Chadwick's statement of facts in connection with the second of these three subjects—hours of study

"Struck by the frightful disproportion between the powers of childish attention and the length of school hours he had direct questions to many distinguished teachers Mr Donaldson, head master of the Training College of Glasgow, states that the limits of voluntary and intelligent attention are, with children from 5 to 7 years of age about 15 minutes from 7 to 10 years of age, about 20 minutes, from 10 to 12 years of age about 30 minutes from 12 to 15 or 18 years of age about 60 minutes," and continues, "I have repeatedly obtained a bright voluntary attention from each of these classes, for five or ten or fifteen minutes more, but always at the expense of the succeeding lesson"

The Rev J A Morrison, Rector of the same college, speaking on the same subject says

"I will undertake to teach a hundred children, in three hours a day, as much as they can by possibility receive, and I hold it to be an axiom in education that no lesson has been given until it has been received, as soon, therefore as the receiving power of the children is exhausted, anything given is useless, nay, injurious, inasmuch as you thereby weaken instead of strengthing the receiving power This ought to be a first principle in education I doubt it is seldom acted on"

The truth of these pregnant remarks is made more and more evident by the testimony of all competent witnesses We respectfully submit to all school commissioners, teachers and parents who may read these statements, that they are not of a character to be glanced at and tossed aside, but are worthy of being thought of and acted upon. From Carlisle's picture of German schools, and from all descriptions of the English schools, there is no doubt that in both those countries there is a lamentable want of understanding on the part of scholars of the subject which they attempt to learn The matter is still worse in France and America, and it is the prominent vice which pervades the whole American system of education

Our failure to secure an understanding of the things which we try to teach is, doubtless, in part owing to the fact that we endeavor to teach too much in a given time but it is also in part attributable to the circumstance that we waste more than three-fourths of the time trying to impart ideas when the mind of the pupil is not in a condition to receive them

This journal has heretofore advocated the practice of having recesses in schools of ten or fifteen minutes every hour but from the experience of the oldest and ablest teachers in Great Britain, it seems that the recesses ought to be granted even to the oldest scholars as often as once in half an hour A teacher might as well expend his efforts upon carved wooden images of children as upon scholars when their minds are tired out.

THE ESCAPE OF THE NASHVILLE The escape of the steamer Nashville, as we learn from a letter from a United States naval officer, is directly attributable to the darkness of the night, and other favorable circumstances—not to want of vigilance on the part of the blockading vessels. Indirectly the escape is chargeable to the neglect of the naval authorities in leaving so important a port, it which it was known the rebel steamer had taken refuge, with so insufficient a guard Of the two vessels on the station the Gemsbok is a sailing vessel Unfortunately she was the only one which saw the Nashville, and the night being calm she could not get underway She fired rapidly at the escaping steamer, but without apparent effect. The United States steamer Cambridge fired several shots at random, but the rebel steamer got to sea without those on board even obtaining sight of her Incendiary fires are burning frequently in Portsmouth and Norfolk, Va, and several handsome private mansions have been burned down. Much public agitation is the consequence.

THE TENNESSEE RIVER EXPEDITION A special correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, under date of Pittsburg 21st, speaking of the prospects of a fight between Major General Grant's division and the rebels, or a series of fights, says that, in his opinion, no stand will be made by the rebel force this side of Corinth, Mississippi, which is west of Pittsburg twenty-three miles, and on the direct road to Memphis. Bragg's forces will be there, also all the best levies from the Gulf States that can reach there in time—Probably a large number—some twenty-five thousand—rebels are there now Corinth is a very important strategical point It is situated in a semi-mountainous country—a branch of the Apalachian range which diverges from the Alleghany mountains, and forms the gold bearing regions of Georgia and Alabama Here also is the junction of the Memphis and Charleston and Mobile and Charleston railroad and thus forms the intact communication of the Atlantic and Gulf seaboards, which is vitally important to the rebels. Hence a desperate conflict will be fought there This key to our forces gained, and the road is open to Memphis, Mobile and New Orleans.

The Norfolk Day Book of the 24th has an article recommending that the government adopt a system of placing heavy guns, used for the defense of rivers, on movable turn tables, so that they could be used in hindering the approach of flanking parties, or carried up and down river sides by horses or ox power as requirements might dictate—a sort of heavy artillery on a light artillery principle If adopted the editor thinks the phrase "shelling out the rebels" would lose its charm

AN APPEAL FROM MISSOURI The following extract is from a letter written by a lady in St Louis to a friend, which we hope will attract the attention of the benevolent and patriotic

When I tell you that Curtis's army depends upon our Sanitary Commission for hospital stores you may imagine there is something to be done in our city Immediately after the battle of Pea Ridge orders were received at their rooms, at 11 o clock at night, for supplies to be sent to General Curtis and the morning train carried but forty boxes laden with everything necessary General Halleck himself and the President of the Commission, sitting up and working all night to accomplish the good work Only a day or two after came another application for supplies for one thousand sick and wounded prisoners and thirteen more boxes were forwarded at once The Commission have been engaged fitting up a floating hospital, to follow the army in its progress down the river, the supplies being a free-will offering from the humane of our city

But the pressing cry from the Southwest took all that had been collected for that purpose, and renewed efforts must be made to furnish the river hospital

The whole Western Department is furnished as far as possible by our Sanitary Commission, so that, notwithstanding the increasing and munificent donations from all parts of the country New England in particular the need for aid is as great as ever

Battles are following each other in such quick succession, and all so immediately within call of St Louis, that it seems almost impossible to furnish everything that is needed by the fearfully increased numbers of sick and wounded Then every battle gives us immense numbers of our foes, who, sick and wounded like our own must be equally cared for by us Do impress on all you may meet the urgent and direful need we are in of the assistance that can be rendered us from abroad, and be assured that while we make such urgent appeals to you we are by no means idle at home I will give you an instance of what has been accomplished by a few ladies The ladies of Mr Elio's society have met every day for two or three weeks, to sew for the hospitals—the material being furnished by the Sanitary Commission Last week in five days, the average number of workers being only fourteen, one hundred shirts, many with twelve button holes, and three hundred and seventy one sheets besides bandages, were returned to the rooms of the committee, where boxes were actually waiting for the articles to be completed before a supply could be sent on its way to the staffing I hear that a number of boxes are now on the way from Boston I am glad of it, for they are greatly needed

When I think of all that is wanted, and all that must be done to supply these great and pressing wants I feel like one in a nightmare—a weight like lead about my heart, and my hands seem tied so very little it seems to me, they can accomplish in this enormous but pressing work

Then, with all these more urgent calls from those who have actually fought and bled for their country the cry for aid from those who are laid low by the hand of disease is as loud as ever, and we hear from the country of hospitals just organizing that are destitute of everything needed in such places Such an instance has just come under my notice from Col Harding, who recently returned from a tour of investigation in the northern part of our State, they were relieved at once by the Sanitary Commission, and there the greater part of your friend's most timely and welcome donation was bestowed I must close this letter or I shall weary you But I could write all day My head and heart are filled with the subject, and I am so excited sometimes that I cannot close my eyes to sleep I believe the interest is a little more intense, when one is, as it were on the very field of action

GEN SIGEL'S ADDRESS TO HIS TROOPS Major General Sigel, in an address to his troops who did such gallant work at Pea Ridge, after enumerating the extraordinary services they had rendered to their country from the moment they marched against the enemy, concludes as follows—

You have done your duty, and you can justly claim your share in the common glory of this victory But let us not be proud, unjust or haughty Let us not forget that alone we were too weak to perform the great work before us—Let us acknowledge the great services done by all the brave soldiers of the third and fourth divisions, and always keep in mind that "United we stand, divided we fall" Let us hold out and push the work through—not by mere words and great clamor, but by good marches, by hard blows and effective battles.

Columbus has fallen—Memphis will follow, and if you do in future as you have done in these past days of trial, the time will soon come when you will pitch your tents on the beautiful shores of the Arkansas river, and there meet our ironclad propellers at Little Rock and Fort Smith. Therefore, keep alert my friends and look forward with confidence.

The Montreal Witness says, "the proved power of iron clad gunboats has, we think, settled the question of war between Britain and the United States forever in the negative. Neither nation can hereafter venture to encounter the terrible destruction which would certainly result from a war with the other."

It is said that the New York Tribune [illegible] has lately submitted seven articles in [illegible] a reparation of the Union.

Matters in Rebeldom.

ALARM AT PENSACOLA

The Mobile Register of March 4th says it is not true that the Confederates intend to abandon Pensacola; but fears from the fact that the Federals have struck their tents on Santa Rosa Island, that they are "again" on the move for some enterprise against the rights and liberties of the South A Pensacola correspondent of the same paper says that much anxiety prevails among the citizens, the merchants are packing up and families who are able are seeking other points for residence The Governor of Florida is endeavoring to raise men for the defense of the city The City Council has passed an ordinance compelling all owners of small vessels in the bay to haul up their crafts and place them in the public square, in consequence of which the square is full of all kinds—sloops and scared boats.

NO CONVERTS TO THE UNION IN GEORGIA

The Savannah Republican, referring to the kind treatment of the people at Fernandina, St. Mary's and Brunswick, by our forces, remarks

"The Federals seem disposed to pursue a conciliatory policy, with the vain hope of winning converts to their cause. They will find none so degraded on the soil of Georgia."

THE EMANCIPATION PROJECT

The Richmond Whig says of President Lincoln's recommendation to Congress in reference to slaves in the border States "The Emperor Abraham I suggests to his liege that, instead of spending their money in making war on the South, they shall propose to buy the Southern negroes Very sensible advice of his majesty the war will ruin him, and then he will have nothing with which to go into the slave trade"

ISLAND NUMBER TEN

A Memphis despatch of the 20th says

Three gunboats lashed together, made a desperate attack on Capt Rucker's battery, it was really terrific Lieut Clarke, of Captain R's battery was the only person killed The battery sustained considerable injury during the bombardment, which lasted four days One of the enemy's gunboats was disabled on Monday and turned back Other boats were struck but the extent of the damage done is not known Our troops conducted themselves with great spirit and resolution

Memphis, March 1 A steamer from up the river brings the intelligence that the Yankees are moving down the west bank slowly

MISCELLANEOUS

The Norfolk Day Book of Monday reports the capture of Lieut Wm T Baum of Philadelphia and Wm Gregg, telegraph operator, by the rebel army of the Potomac It says an impression prevails that the Rappahannock river is to be the base line of operations of the army of Manassas General Joseph E Johnston is said to be at a point not far from Rappahannock station, on the Alexandria and Orange railroad, and between the Rapidan and Rappahannock rivers, but as the Day Book declines to give the position of General Holmes's division of which it had actual knowledge not much reliance can be placed on the above reports.

The merchants of Charleston opened a subscription for a turtle ram on Friday, and the subscription soon reached $11 000

A number of the wooden and other structures forming the village of Yorktown have been removed lately, in order to facilitate military operations offensive or defensive

Three men, who are believed to be natives of Virginia, were arrested in Richmond on Friday by order of the Provost Marshal for very decided manifestations of disloyalty

FROM THE SOUTH A special dispatch of the 27th from Cairo to the Chicago Tribune, contains these items

A gentleman just from Memphis brings the following information He represents Memphis as in a state of agitation and terror The fair grounds are used for camps Every one capable of bearing arms is being impressed into the service Men are even dragged from their beds

The proclamation of the Mayor in regard to burning the city has no influence A majority of the Aldermen in connection with leading citizens officers decided at a meeting held a fortnight ago to burn the city when they evacuated in spite of the Mayor

There are no fortifications at Memphis

The news of the battle at Pea Ridge caused great depression Federal gunboats are expected daily

At Memphis and at other large points—even at New Orleans—there is considerable Union feeling, and Southern papers do not represent the feelings of the mass of the people, as they as well as everything else, are under the control of politicians and the military

The report that the South is well supplied with provisions is absurd They have not stock enough on hand to last six months Clothing, shoes &c, are also very difficult to obtain No confidence is felt in Southern currency Southern politicians or Southern military leaders

Jeff Davis was unanimously denounced as incompetent

Floyd is everywhere considered as an arrant knave

Mrs Buckner had arrived at Memphis She complained of not being allowed to go farther North than Cairo In the parlor of the Gayoso House she attracted universal attention by her denunciation of Pillow and Floyd The former is represented to have said that he would shoot Floyd whenever he met him

The above facts are reliable as I have them from a Northern man an old acquaintance, whose word may be relied upon"

A letter from Knoxville in the Atlanta (Georgia) Confederacy expresses the opinion that the Federal troops will not attack the rebel forces at Cumberland Gap because the great valley of East Tennessee is penetrable, over a better road than via Cumberland Gap, and without any fortifications to encounter Cumberland Gap is "humbug," and must be abandoned whenever a Federal army occupies Knoxville or London—The writer adds

"The Unionists by thousands are running away from East Tennessee to join the federal army These fugitives carry with them a thorough local knowledge of the country and its affairs, and I can hardly imagine how a federal commander could commit the blunder of attacking Cumberland Gap"

Jeff. Davis has vetoed the bill creating the office of Commanding General

The Norfolk Day Book of Monday gives evidence of the uneasiness and apprehension existing there Among the military orders, with which the advertising columns are filled, is one directing all the young men of the city between the ages of 16 and 18 years to assemble at the Academy lot for the purpose of being enrolled. No schooners, sloops or other crafts are permitted to pass about the harbor after dark, except ferry boats, or boats in Government service.—All craft entering or leaving the harbor must stop at the guard ship and exhibit their permit.

Another article dated on the 12th, says:

"Clergymen, actually holding the pastoral function, will be assigned from mill on Sunday by the Captains of their respective precincts.

Fire Wardens of the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth emancipated from military duty after being [illegible] and the Captains will detail [illegible]

as they have or can procure The annexed items are from the same source

Gen Johnston has cut out the army of the Potomac from all intercourse with the public—New levies are said to be pouring in, and a thorough system of defense is being inaugurated

The Secretary of War has allowed enlisting volunteers to choose the regiments and company to which they will attach themselves Cavalry companies will be received for the war without arms.

The Crescent regiment, composed of youths from school, is from Louisiana, and was at Jackson, Tenn, on the 7th inst.

Ten letters from England are in the Norfolk Day Book office, and parties to whom they are addressed are requested to call for them

No less than seventy seven citizens of Loudon county were sent to Richmond on Thursday last and confined in prison on the charge of being disloyal to the South

Twenty nine ladies of Mason Wesleyan Institute transferred the blankets from their own beds to the soldiers

Seven thousand confederate troops reached Norfolk on March 27th

On the 11th the rebel soldiers in Jeffersonville Fla, being aroused against a Mr Remington, a commission merchant, and a native of the North for the utterance of Union sentiments, shot him dead on the street Two other Yankee residents were killed while attempting to escape from the place in boats

PERISHED IN THE STORM. We learn that on Sunday week, a young lady—Miss Darling of Golden Ridge in this county—left home to visit a neighbor about a mile distant, and as the road lead through a piece of woods, it is supposed she lost her way in the blinding storm and great depth of snow, and thus perished. Her body was not found until Wednesday following —Houlton Times.

Little Willie.

Close the curtains gently, softly
Shut the golden sunlight out
Bid the children 'neath the window
Hush their laugh and merry shout
Push aside the snowy cover
Over whose dim shadows creep
Then draw dear and gaze in silence
Little Willie's gone to sleep

Look! those flaxen curls are lying
Lightly on his brow of white
While the long dark silken lashes
Close around those orbs of light.
And from lips but slightly parted
See the tiny pearl gems peep
While a low voice seems to utter
Willie's only gone to sleep"

Why in sorrow bends the mother
Fondly over her darling now?
Covering with earnest kisses
Hand and cheek, neck, lip and brow?
Why burst forth those cries of anguish.
Wailings bitter sobbings deep?
Let's kneel down and softly whisper
"Willie's only gone to sleep"

Gone but not to broidly slumber
As when here he closed his eyes,
Whilst thy heart kept time within thee
To thy soothing lullabies.
Now no clay holds back the spirit
Soaring through the upper deep
Only to earth's cares and trials
Has thy Willie gone to sleep

GRAND EXPLOIT Carleton, of the Boston Journal, writing from the Sicinnity of Island No 10, says

We have heard a great deal about strategy during the war but have waited for exhibitions, we have one a last, worthy of mention Night before last General Pope had an earthwork thrown up on the bank of the river below New Madrid and a 24 pounder masked within Supposing that the rebels would shell it with their gunboats he contrived a trap He secreted a number of sharpshooters near the river who awaited the approach of the gunboat, which was an ordinary steamer with two guns on her deck forward The boat came up cautiously, opened fire but receiving no reply came nearer when suddenly the sharpshooters sprang to their feet and picked off nearly all the gunners The boat started away but received a shot which sent her to the bottom

An Advance by the Centre of the Potomac Army—A party of Rebels Visit Fairfax Court House—Rebels Strengthening the Defences of Norfolk—Shipping Point Occupied by Union Troops.

NEW YORK, 29th

The Herald's Washington despatch says an advance was made by the centre of our army of the Potomac on Thursday upon the rebels, 10 000 strong, on the road between Warrenton Junction, driving them several miles towards Gordonsville. The bridges and tracks on the railroad were all destroyed and torn up but our troops were pursuing the enemy as rapidly as circumstances would permit

The excursion party went out on the Manassas Gap road, about five miles beyond the Junction cutting away the fallen trees and clearing away the other obstructions from the track The road was otherwise in perfect order, and the water stations are unimpaired They also proceeded on the road to Gordonsville as far as Bristow Station, at which point the bridge over Broad Run is destroyed

The following despatch has been received

MANASSAS, 28th

Several hundred invalid soldiers were sent this morning from the army of the Potomac here to Philadelphia, for the purpose of recruiting their health Among them are many suffering from wounds

The railroad depot at Acquia Creek was not burnt as late as Monday, for it was then plainly visible from the vessels of our Potomac flotilla

The Times' Washington despatch says the President to-day nominated Gen Cadwallader for Major General of volunteers He will take the field at once

Francis Galisher, Esq, of Baltimore, a prominent lawyer, was killed at the battle of Winchester while fighting for the cause of the Union

The Senate Committee agreed yesterday to reduce the tax upon newspaper advertisements proposed by the bill before Congress from five per cent to three per cent and decided to establish an ad valorem tax of three per cent upon paper instead of the proposed tax of three mills per pound

The Tribune's Washington despatch says the Quartermaster of Gen Blenker's division states that a party of rebel soldiers, numbering about 50, visited Fairfax Court House yesterday, there being at that time, no troops there, and with arms in their hands attacked and drove out the sutlers and destroyed their stores, at the same time tearing down all the Union flags A part of the German division was ordered there from Centreville to guard the town from such marauders

To day the President nominated, on the recommendation of the Indiana delegation, the following Colonels of Indiana volunteers, as Brig adier Generals A P Hovey, W Kimball, W P Benton, J C Veitch, and P A Hackleman

The President will to-morrow send to the Senate the nomination of Bayard Taylor as Secretary of Legation to St Petersburg

It is said that Secretary Stanton has authorized Judge Thomas, representative from Mass, to say so soon as officers of rank could be convened without injury to the service, General Stone should be tried by court martial

FORTRESS MONROE, 28

The rebels have been exceedingly busy about Pig Point and Craney Island for the last few days Tugs have been busily plying to and fro and it is supposed they are strengthening their fortifications, all along from Craney Island to the Point

They have also increased their forces in that vicinity, or, for effect, their camps have been advanced, and long lines of tents can be seen along the shore.

NEW YORK, 29th

The ship Ashburton was struck in the maintop, February 17th, by a meteor as large as a 64 pound ball

PHILADELPHIA, 29th

Jackson's pyrotechnic factory, on 10th and Reed streets, exploded early this morning Four or five persons were killed, including a son of Jackson The heads of the victims were blown nearly two squares The fragments of human bodies scattered about the ruins make a shocking sight Ten or twelve others, girls and boys, are seriously injured

Jackson had a government contract for filling cartridges, and employed 50 girls and 24 men The heads of three persons, a number of arms and other fragments of bodies were found in the neighborhood Edward Jackson and John Mehoffey, both boys were recognized

WINCHESTER, 29.

Secretary Seward and friends arrived at 9 o clock last night They were escorted from the cars to Gen Shields's quarters by the 110th and 66th Pennsylvania regiments and a troop of cavalry

This morning a party, including Gen Shields, Assistant Adjutant General Strong, and Colonel Clark of Gen Banks's staff, visited the battle field Mr Seward and friends will leave in the cars at 11 o'clock this forenoon

WASHINGTON, 29th.

Shipping Point was yesterday occupied by our troops As the steamer Mount Washington passed the place to-day, they had hoisted the flag of the Union, and the band was playing the Star spangled Banner All the rebels who have been at that vicinity for some time past had left, with the exception of two or three roaming cavalry companies

The steamer King Philip left here this morning on a trip to Old Point, having on board Vice President Hamlin and several other gentlemen of prominence, and several ladies.

WASHINGTON, 26th

A large force of the enemy was driven in from the Warrenton railroad junction, to-day, by Gen Sumner

There has been a fall of snow to-day

A despatch from the U S Consul at Nantes, to the Department of State says that vessels coming into that port suffer loss through the ignorance of their owners The risks and expenses are considerable, damage from fouling is frequent, and advances on freight are not usually made until all is delivered He advises that charters be made to St Nazaire and not to Nantes or Parmborg

FORTRESS MONROE, 28.

Gen Hunter and staff arrived yesterday en route for Port Royal, to take command of army operations in that quarter

ST LOUIS, 29

The Democrat's Cairo despatch says the steamer Dickey went down to the fleet yesterday, heavily laden with ordnance and commissary stores Navy cannon were taken down for the gunboat Benton, also hand grenades to repel boarding parties

Persons from New Madrid report that several rebel transports and gunboats came within range of our Biddle Point batteries and opened fire but were compelled to retire after a short engagement

The Grampus is the only rebel gunboat above our blockade, and that is constantly on the alert watching our movements at New Madrid.

It is also said that the rebels have erected batteries on the opposite side of the river to prevent Gen Pope's troops from crossing to attack their rear.

WASHINGTON, 29th

A reconnoissance was made yesterday by our forces beyond Warrenton Junction A body of the enemy's cavalry retreated as our troops advanced, and burned the bridge over the Rappahannock There was some slight skirmishing but no loss of life or any wounded on our side

A military department, to be called the Middle department, and to consist of the States of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Eastern shore of Maryland and Virginia and the counties of Cecil, Hartford, Baltimore and Ameauxundall (?) in Maryland has been created Major General Dix of the U S Volunteers, has been assigned, to the command, his headquarters to be at Baltimore

All is quiet here There have been no demonstrations on the part of the Merrimac, as yet

The steamer Suwanee has arrived from New bern All is quiet there

Gen Burnside has gone to Beaufort and taken quiet possession of the place There was no resistance whatever, and no burning of property

Fort Macon was still occupied by the rebels numbering from 300 to 500, but they were entirely cut off and must soon surrender

On Friday evening the rebels threw a ball from one of the field guns at Sewall's Point which came within about 300 yards of the shipping in the upper roadsteads

During the blow last night steamer Flushing had a hole knocked in her side, and now lies on the bar careened over, in a somewhat dangerous position if the storm continues

The Lincoln gun has been mounted, and this morning was tried in order to test the carriage Only ten shots were fired The second shot was a splendid ricochet shot weighing 437 pounds After making three plunges and renewed flights, it finally sunk away off near Sewall's Point If the Merrimac can stand one of these Lincoln pills, as they are called, she is proof against all appliances of modern gunnery

There are some signs of activity toward Norfolk This morning a steam tug came down to Sewall's Point, and the smoke from a large vessel could be seen off above Craney Island A propeller, apparently, a gunboat, also came down James river within about three miles of Newport News, and after reconnoitering, apparently, returned up the river The present high wind and low water, however, forbids all expectations of the appearance of the Merrimac until the storm is over

BALTIMORE, 30th

The rebels burnt the bridge on the railroad between Newbern and Beaufort, but it was in progress of repair and the roads would soon be in operation between the two places. So far as our informants know, all of whom came from Newbern and had not been at Beaufort there was no destruction of property at the latter place and a large majority of the citizens remained quietly in their homes On the approach of the federal forces all the rebel soldiers in the vicinity shut themselves up in Fort Macon — Their numbers were variously represented by citizens at Beaufort at from 300 to 600 men — The fort was said to be but lightly provisioned, and it was not believed it could hold out more than a week Its ultimate capture is of course a matter of certainty Gen Burnside was at Beaufort Perfect order reigned at Newbern, and a number of citizens had returned to that place. Gen Foster was military Governor of the city The rebels were believed to be in strong force toward Kingston, 35 miles on the road to Goldsboro', and their scouts frequently appeared in the vicinity of Newbern

The expedition to Washington was successful It consisted of about 1000 men with an escort of gunboats Two companies of the Massachusetts 24 landed and took the place The stars and stripes were nailed to a tree before the Court House, and left there The citizens received the invaders without any apparent excitement or apprehension, some few expressing Union sentiments, while, the mass had nothing to say either way After holding the place one day and gathering all the information they could, the expedition returned to Newbern.

WASHINGTON, 30th.

A passenger who arrived here from Winchester says that there is no apprehension that Gen Shields arm will have to be amputated, and that the rebels under Jackson were yesterday still at Sight beyond Strasburg

The majority of the vestry of Trinity Episcopal Church having essayed to depose their pastor for non-compliance with the order of Bishop Whittingham, to read the prayer prescribed by him for the late Union successes, the minister denies their authority thus to act, and has given them formal notice that he will submit the question to the membership. He officiated in that church to-day The Church of the Ascension, the Rector of which also omitted the usual prayer, was closed to-day, not, however, without that measure but even now some of the parishioners against continuance within sight range of a battle at the place. [illegible] was [illegible]

NEW YORK, 30th

The steamer Empire City, from Port Royal, has arrived.

The following is from the New South newspaper of the 22d

General Sherman visited Jacksonville on the 19th, and was waited on by a committee of citizens, who represented the feeling of all in the town as strongly Union Many of the inhabitants left Jacksonville with the rebels, who threatened to hang all who remained

Bands of rebel regulators or guerillas were pillaging and destroying all property of suspected Unionists, under orders from the rebel General Trapier At Jacksonville the night before the Union troops arrived, these regulators burned a large foundry, several saw mills, together with five million feet of lumber, a large hotel and a large dry-goods warehouse, supposed to belong to Unionists, and threatened to destroy the entire city; but the gunboats making their appearance, they postponed their threat

Many are returning to Jacksonville, among whom are rebel deserters anxious to take the oath of allegiance, and who state that desertions will be numerous.

The sentiment of eastern Florida is declared to be loyal Many are willing to take up arms, and defend themselves against rebel tyranny On one occasion, when the regulators were reported as coming, even the women seized arms The national troops are treated to every hospitality the town affords, and the people state they will go with the gunboats if they leave, but measures have been taken to fully protect them

The gunboat Ottowa has been 120 miles up St. Johns river beyond Jacksonville, meeting with no opposition White flags were displayed by the inhabitants, who claimed its protection

Steamer St Mary's and the yacht America were found sunk, but Capt Stevens of the Ottowa was raising them

Pensacola has been evacuated, including Forts Barrancas and McRee, and the rebels announce the entire abandonment of Florida The troops raised in Florida were ordered off, but refused to go

Colonel Whipple, of the New Hampshire 4th regiment has resigned, and Lieut Col Bell is now commanding that regiment, withdrawn head quarters at San Augustine

General Wright was about moving his head quarters from Fernandina to Jacksonville.

Some 80 inhabitants of Fernandina had returned to their homes

Steamer Oriental had arrived from New York with 30,000 letters for the Port Royal troops The news of our victories greatly rejoiced our troops.

General Sherman had issued a proclamation to the people of East Florida in which he states that the troops of the United States came to protect the loyal citizens and their property and to enable them to reassume a government

All loyal people who return or remain at home in the quiet pursuit of loyal avocations shall be protected in all their Constitutional rights The sole aim and intention of the Government is to maintain the integrity of the Constitution and the laws, and reclaim States, that have revolted from their national allegiance, to their former prosperous and happy condition

He expresses great satisfaction at evidences of loyalty, and recommends the citizens to assemble in the cities towns and precincts and throw off the sham government forced upon them, and swear allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and organize a government and elect officers in the good old ways of the past

He predicts a return of prosperity and happy times, immunity from war and suffering, and the enjoyment of the fruits of their honest labors and the sweets of happy homes and the consolation of living under the wise and salutary laws due an industrious and law abiding people.

At a meeting of the loyal citizens in Jacksonville, on the 20th, a declaration of rights a protest and resolutions, were adopted to the following effect

That no State has the constitutional right to separate itself from the United States

That the act of secession adopted by the State Convention of Florida is void, being in conflict with the Constitution in never having been submitted to the people for ratification

That Florida is an integral part of the United States, subjected to its constitutional jurisdiction and we believe that thousands of her citizens had with pleasure the restoration of the Government, bringing deliverance from the terrors of unrestrained military despotism

The resolutions protest against all the acts and ordinances of the convention, depriving the inhabitants of Florida of their rights as citizens of the United States, against the despotism which denies freedom of speech and of the press, against the contributions of money property and labor and military enlistments, forced on them, against the tyranny which demands an abandonment of home and property and an exposure of their wives and children to sickness, destitution, famine, and untold miseries, against the barbarous policy which sends a brutal soldiery to pillage and burn property, and destroy life as a punishment for remaining at their homes, against the governor who threatens to hang them because they will not tamely submit to such indignities

The resolutions declare that the people of Florida, having been released from such danger indignities, and restored to the government of the United States, and the reign of terror having passed, it now becomes them as loyal citizens to raise up a State government, and close by recommending that a convention of all loyal citizens be called forthwith to organize a State government of the State of Florida, and also that the chief of the military department of the United States be requested to maintain a sufficient force to preserve order, and protect the people in their persons and property

SEDALIA, Mo, 29

The notorious brigand Quantrell, with 200 of his band, made a sudden and unexpected attack on a detachment of Colonel Phillips's regiment of Missouri militia, under Major Foster at Warrensburg, on Wednesday last, but after a spirited skirmish they were driven from the town with the loss of 9 killed, 17 wounded, and 20 horses captured Our loss was 2 killed and 9 wounded

Quantrell made another attack on the town on the following day, the result of which is not yet known

Lieut Colonel Crittenden has left Georgetown with reinforcements for Major Foster

Scouting parties of Colonel Phillips's regiment have captured over 2000 kegs of rebel powder in Pettis county within the past few days

NEW YORK, 29

The Times' special Washington correspondent writing from Warrenton Junction, says that for two days past the rebels have been crowding steadily toward the Rappahannock Four men of the 66th New York regiment, were captured Thursday night while on picket duty

Two brigades of rebels being closely pressed, yesterday, retreated across the Rappahannock toward Gordonsville, and blew up the railroad bridge The rebels are now all south of the Rappahannock.

MANASSAS, VA., 29th.

At the skirmish at Rappahannock Bridge last evening, Capt, Clarke's battery of the 4th artillery shelled the rebels with remarkable precision and rapidity. The enemy left in their haste a number of cars loaded with grain and other forage We could have shelled them with terrible effect in the act of carrying off this sink and wounded, had it been desirable.

A rebel lieutenant and four privates were taken prisoners.

The enemy [illegible] yesterday [illegible] night A bottle of strychnine was found among the rebel forage abandoned in the vicinity of Warrenton junction

A second meeting of the secessionists was held at Fairfax Court House last Wednesday night. Several of the troops have been killed in the neighborhood of the Court House during the week by the rebel sympathizers Steps have been taken to detect the perpetrators, and to prevent a similar occurrence.

A drove of 26 cattle was captured from the enemy

NEW YORK, 29th

A meeting of the Sons of New England will be held Monday evening to arrange for providing suitable care, attendance and accommodations for wounded New England soldiers as they pass through this city on their way homeward from the war

The Astor House was visited yesterday and to day by about 5000 citizens, desirous of paying respect to the memory of the gallant Colonel Slocum, Maj Ballou and Captain Tower The coffins were decorated with lilies and other rare flowers The gift of Mrs. Wm Burton a beautiful wreath, was presented by Mrs Benson of Brooklyn, which Lieut Col Steere, who is in charge of the remains, will deliver to the friends of Col Slocum on their arrival in Providence — Gen Sprague returned to Providence to make arrangements for the obsequies. It is expected that all the forces in the State will take part in the arrangements. The bodies are to be deposited in a common tomb until removed by the relatives of the deceased officers. Col. Slocum's remains will be removed to Swan Point. Major Ballou's, to Woonsocket and Captain Tower's to Pawtucket They leave this city by the five o clock boat, from the foot of Courtland street

CINCINNATI, 30th

Morgan's rebel cavalry captured another train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad on Friday Col Cowan Pope of Kentucky was taken prisoner, with a few other Federal officers The locomotive was run into a ditch and the cars destroyed

Parson Brownlow is expected this week The hospitalities of the State have been extended to him

PROVIDENCE, 30

The remains of Colonel Slocum, Major Ballou and Captain Tower reached here this morning They have been lying in state at the Infantry Armory The Burnside Zouaves act as a guard of honor Thousands of people have visited the Armory to day The military and civil procession takes place to morrow The remains will be entered in Grace Church Cemetery

ST LOUIS, 30

On the night of the 26th a band of from 500 to 800 rebels attacked four companies of State Militia at Hummonsville, Polk County Mo — They were completely defeated with a loss of 15 killed and a large number wounded Our loss was 1 killed but a number wounded Among the latter were Captains Stockton and Cosgrove, severely

NEW YORK, 30

The Transport steamer New York from New bern and Hatteras 28th, has arrived She brings no news

The Nashville was reported to be still at Beaufort But this is incorrect

Among the passengers are Colonel Lee of the Massachusetts 27th, Captain Fuller and Lieut Barrett do and Lieut Spaulding of the 25th Massachusetts

CAIRO 29

After a lull the bombardment at Island No 10 was vigorously renewed yesterday The rebels appear to have received and put in position new guns of longer range

There is nothing important from Tennessee to-day

An arrival from Memphis reports that there is a general despondency there, and that but little confidence is felt in the large force concentrating at Corinth, Miss

NEW YORK, 30th

The Herald's Washington despatch says the telegraph is working admirably to Warrenton Junction

Five cannon buried by rebels have been found a mile and a half beyond the Junction, and obstructions were found on the track near Fairfax Station Friday night, evidently placed there by secessionists a number of whom live in that vicinity No damage was done

Mayor Key of Chelsea, Mass, of the allotment commission, has been with the 1st and 11th Massachusetts regiments for a few days and met with excellent success These regiments have alloted over $7000 each, of their monthly pay Company H, of the 1st Regiment from Chelsea, allots $965 monthly

Henry Thompson, of Rockland Me, has been appointed Acting Master in the Navy

ROLLA, Mo, 29th

Reliable persons just from the army in the South west, say that the rebels, numbering some 35 000, under Gen Van Dorn and Price, have retreated entirely across the Boston Mountains, and are now at Van Buren and Fort Smith receiving supplies from Memphis and Little Rock via the Arkansas river, which is high

ST LOUIS, 30th.

The army correspondent of the Republican, writing under date of Cairo, March 29th, says the firing on Friday at Island No 10 was quite heavy, the rebels opening from a new battery, mounted, is is supposed, with 128 pounders — The enemy could be seen cutting away trees and rapidly pushing forward other means of defence They seem to have no idea of evacuating at present, and are daily getting more cannon in position

Word reached the fleet last night that four rebel gunboats, partly clad with railroad iron, appeared below Point Pleasant, but as General Pope's batteries extend in an almost continuous line for 16 miles it is not believed they can force a passage

NEW YORK, 30th

The gunboat Huntsville from Key West 25th arrived this evening The Niagara, South Carolina, Mohawk, Water Witch, Marion and eight other vessels were at Key West The prize steamer Magnolia was to sail for New York on the 24th, the Ship Nightingale sailed on the 22d for Tortugas and the Pass a

Advices from the Mississippi Passes State that heavy firing was heard from the head of the Passes where four vessels had gone. The remainder of Porter's fleet had all left Key West together with some of our gunboats. An attack on New Orleans was momentarily expected

Expeditions against Apalachicola were in contemplation from Key West Considerable cotton is stored at Apalachicola, which is defended by 13 guns and 3000 rebels.

The steamer Cuyler, at Key West from Havana, reports quite a number of rebel vessels there

A French man of war from Vera Cruz had 27 cases of small pox on board.

The health of the troops at Key West is good. The small pox had broke out in the New Hampshire regiment at Tortugas

Two of the crew captured on the Magnolia report that great preparations had been made at New Orleans to resist an attack Several gunboats were building, and martial law was soon to be proclaimed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Numerous imitations of the Stewart Stove having appeared in the market during the past few years, and, of late, attempts having been made to counterfeit the name or trade mark, it is deemed highly important that the public should know how to distinguish the genuine article when making purchase of a stove

Ask for the genuine F P STEWART Stove, and see that F P STEWART's name is on the hearth plate of each Stove. The name of the only manufacturers, Foster, Warren & Co are on each Stove.

Laws of the United States,

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

(PUBLIC—No. 22.)

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and thirty-four.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,

That the twentieth section of the "Act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, be and the same is hereby amended, so as to read as follows, to wit:

"Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall sell, exchange, give, barter, or dispose of any spirituous liquor or wine to any Indian under the charge of any Indian superintendent or Indian agent appointed by the United States, or shall introduce or attempt to introduce any spirituous liquor or wine into the Indian country, such person, on conviction thereof before the proper district court of the United States, shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding two years, and shall be fined not more than three hundred dollars: Provided, however, That it shall be a sufficient defence to any charge of introducing or attempting to introduce liquor into the Indian country, if it be proved to be done by order of the War Department, or of any officer duly authorized thereto by the War Department. And if any superintendent of Indian affairs, Indian Agent or sub-agent, or commanding officer of a military post, has reason to suspect, or is informed that any white person or Indian is about to introduce or has introduced any spirituous liquor or wine into the Indian country, in violation of the provisions of this section, it shall be lawful for such superintendent, agent, sub-agent or commanding officer, to cause the boats, stores, packages, wagons, sleds, and places of deposit of such person to be searched, and if any such liquor is found therein, the same, together with the boats, teams, wagons, and sleds used in conveying the same, and also the goods, packages, and peltries of such person, shall be seized and delivered to the proper officer, and shall be proceeded against in the proper court, and forfeited, one-half to the informer, and the other half to the use of the United States; and if such person be a trader, his license shall be revoked, and his bond put in suit. And it shall moreover be lawful for any person in the service of the United States, or for any Indian, to take and destroy any ardent spirits or wine found in the Indian country, except such as may be introduced therein by the War Department. And in all cases arising under this act in lines shall be competent witnesses."

(Approved, February 13, 1862.

(PUBLIC—No. 23.)

AN ACT making an appropriation for completing the defences of Washington, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,

That the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for completing the defences of Washington: Provided, That all arrearages of debts already incurred for the objects of this act shall be first paid out of this sum: And provided further, That no part of the sum hereby appropriated shall be expended in any work heretofore to be commenced.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the fifth section of the act of twenty-ninth September eighteen hundred and fifty, providing for the discharge from the service of minors enlisted without the consent of their parents, be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided, That hereafter no person under the age of eighteen shall be mustered into the service of the United States, and the oath of enlistment taken by the recruit shall be conclusive as to his age.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That no volunteers or militia from any State or Territory shall be mustered into the service of the United States on any terms or conditions confining their service to the limits of said State or Territory, or their vicinity, beyond the number first thousand in the State of Missouri, and four thousand five hundred in the State of Maryland, hereof duly authorized by the President of the United States, or Secretary of War, to be raised in said States.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the second section of the act of the tenth of April, eighteen hundred and six, shall and the same is hereby recommended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, in time of war or rebellion against the authority of the United States, all persons who shall be found lurking as spies, or acting as such, in or about the fortifications, encampments, posts, quarters, or headquarters of the armies of the United States, or any of them, within any part of the United States which has been or may be declared to be in a state of insurrection by proclamation of the President of the United States, shall suffer death by sentence of a general court martial."

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the fifty-fifth article of the first section of act of the tenth of April, eighteen hundred and six, chapter twenty-six, and the same is hereby so amended as to read as follows:

"Article fifty-five. Whoever, belonging to the armies of the United States in foreign parts, or at any place within the United States, or their Territories, during rebellion against the supreme authority of the United States, shall frame a safeguard, shall suffer death."

BOOTS AND SHOES

MADE ON

PLUMER'S PATENT ANATOMICAL LASTS!

[From J. V. C. Smith, M. D., formerly Mayor of Boston.]

PLUMER'S PATENT BOOTS.

The Undersigned has worn a pair of these IMPROVED Boots, and feels grateful to the Inventor for the comfort derived from them. The nice adjustment of the sole to every part of the under surface of the foot, is an important circumstance which seems to have been entirely overlooked till Dr. Plumer planned his Last and Boot upon truly scientific principles.

Those who have once had an opportunity to test the real advantages of these Philosophically made Boots, will hardly be reconciled to wear any other.

J. V. C. SMITH

BOSTON, July 26, 1861.

J. C. PLUMER, M. D.

Dear Sir—I am greatly delighted with your newly invented boots which I have worn during the past winter, and only wonder that the world should have been so stupid as not to have made the discovery half a century ago. Any one with a grain of common sense and a moments reflection, cannot fail to see that your "PATENT BOOTS AND SHOES" are perfectly adapted to the foot (that wonderful piece of Nature's Mechanism,) giving to every portion of it a firm and equal support; and I am sure that those who once make trial of your new invention will never go back to the old fashioned boots or shoes, which are so prolific of Corns, Bunions, and a thousand other troubles. Your "Patent Boots" seems to be part and parcel of our Physical structure, supporting the foot fully, giving steadiness to the gait, and promoting human comfort to an eminent degree, especially in walking over rough surfaces.

I wish I knew of some means by which I could make known to every man, woman and child in Christendom, the importance and importance of your invention. Very truly yours,

SERIB MATTSON, M. D.
65 Summer Street.

BOSTON, July 12, 1860.

DR. PLUMER—

Dear Sir—Having learned the principle upon which your "Anatomical Last" is made, I was favorably impressed, as to its efficiency in relieving a difficulty which all have experienced, who have to walk considerably, viz: severe pain in the feet after much walking. After having worn the boots made upon the "Anatomical Last," I found no such ejaculations than real relief. I can walk nearly all day without considering the above named difficulty in the least degree. I also escaped the "torturing process of breaking in" my boots, for they were as easy at first as after they had been worn.

Truly Yours, G. H. BURBANK, M. D.
Corner of Congress and Pearl streets.

I have been engaged for over six months in the manufacture of BOOTS and SHOES on the

"Plumer" Patent Last

with decided success. Experienced workmen are employed, the BEST stock used, and a perfect fit guaranteed.

DR. SWEET'S

Infallible Liniment!

—THE—

Great External Remedy

For Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Stiff Neck and Joints, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts and Wounds, Piles, Headache, and all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders.

FOR all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone-setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN it is unrivalled by any preparation ever before the public of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used, it has never been known to fail.

For NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in three minutes, and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also it cures instantly.

For NERVOUS DEBILITY and GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy.—Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to healthy vigor.

FOR PILES—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints liable to occur if neglected—the worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, and INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative powers of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

CAUTION.

To avoid imposition, I reserve the signature and likeness of Dr. Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment" blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine.

PROF. WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE

AND

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

Is precisely what its name indicates for while it is pleasant to the taste it is invigorating, exhilirating and strengthening to the vital powers—it also invigorates, restores and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renews the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence even the weakest stomach and tone up the digestive organs and allay all nervous and hypochondriac irritations. It is also perfectly the natural growth of the hair, not a never failing vegetable compound of spirits, it contains no injurious ingredients, and those who have tried it have found it a never failing remedy for all diseases of the scalp, and those who have suffered from dandruff, or for whom all else has failed, will find in this preparation a remedy that has been tried to be a sound medium in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science and also by all who have suffered from dandruff, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that it is a remedy for all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded open to all the attacks of many of the most dangerous diseases to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, bronchitis, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, melancholy, hypocondria, night sweats, languor, giddiness, and all that class of causes so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called female weaknesses and irregularities. Also, liver derangements or torpidity, and liver complaints, disease of the kidneys, scalding of incontinence of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs, pain in the back, side and between the shoulders, premonitions to night colds, hacking and continued cough, emaciation, difficulty of breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following chills and ever, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts directly and powerfully upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, promoting in fact all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will fearlessly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits—students, ministers, literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which robs them of their beauty, for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then again, the cordial is a perfect mother's relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it, this cordial is all we claim for it. Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from false delicacy, often goes down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure you never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need. O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists.

Price, One Dollar per bottle.
